제목: March 8 events

Dear Indai, Hei Su, Yayori, Charlotte and Rhonda,

This is an update and follow-up of the events on March 8 around the the Summary judgement of the Tokyo Tribunal.

1. Press Conference: Felicity has booked the UNCA club at the UN from 1.15 p.m. to 2.45 p.m. and will make arrangements for the luncheon press briefing (Cost $200). We hope to have one organizer (of the Tokyo Tribunal) and Judge Macdonald speaking to the press.

2. Felicity also managed to book the 2nd floor of the Church Center (rent $ 250, snacks $ 400) on March 8 from 6.00 p.m. to 8.00 p.m. The program for the evening too will be speakers consisting of the organizers, Judge Macdonald, a survivor and members of the victimized community.

3. The status of contact established with the respective community is as follows:

Hei Su gave us the name and contact information of a person who will mobilize the Korean Community for the event. We just received a name and contact information for the Chinese community. We are in touch with two other Asian organization based in NY who are interested in participating. We also have contact with the Japanese women who want to participate and mobilize other Japanese persons. We do not have contact with the Philipino community. Indai, pl. help with contact phone nos. We are meeting with all these people on Feb.13. to appraise them of the event and

4. I have written to the Chair of the ICC Prepcor requesting that he marks Mar.8 by inviting Judge Macdonald to speak. I await his response.

5. Printing of the Summary judgement: We have been in touch with Rhonda for the electronic version of the judgement that included recommendations. We heard that an electronic version need to be reconstructed. We will print copies for distribution as soon as we get an electronic version of the summary judgement. ($150)

5. The cost of doing the above works out to $1000. Indai suggested that all of us should chip in and help with the costs. The Caucus can help with atleast $150. I request you all to let us know who is willing to help and how much.

Look forward to hearing from all of you.
