

> So please, Alda, Florence and Edna - give us your valuable time, remember you won't be saying yes to us but to the (former comfort women of Asia) whose justice is still being denied by the Japanese government to this day!

>

> This coming February 18-19 we're going to have a meeting in Seoul Korea among the representatives of the victimized countries to discuss in full our plans for the next two years and how to make this initiative viable.

>

> Agenda of the Seoul Meeting:

>

> 1. Objectives, Orientation and nature of the Tokyo International Women's Tribunal

> 2. Current status and conditions of the Asian comfort Women

> 3. Contemporary Sexual Slavery Issues - Bosnia, Rwanda, and Algeria

> 4. Legal conduct of the tribunal

> 5. Research and Investigation and Documentation of the Historical nature of military sexual slavery by Japan among victimized countries (to be undertaken by the victimized countries)

> 6. Nature of the international organizing committee; the international advisory council (composition, role and functions and responsibilities)

> 7. Finance / fund raising

> 8. International campaigns

> 9. Statutes of the International Tribunal

>

> There will be other areas of concerns which will be further discussed at the Seoul meeting. We will definitely report to you the proceedings of the meeting and the agreements. This meeting is quite important to all of us and we wish for its success. We will also take to task the points which some of you have raised earlier to be considered at the meeting.

>

> Thank you very much to all of you for sharing with us your valuable time and commitment to the women victims of war.

>

> With warmest regards,

>

> Indai and Yayori

>

>

>

> CC: Prof. Yun Chung Ok (Korean Council)

>

>

>