

An artistic illustration featuring four hands of different skin tones (light, medium, and dark brown) reaching towards a central puzzle. The puzzle pieces are arranged to form a rainbow, with colors transitioning from green at the top to red at the bottom. The background is a bright blue sky filled with soft, white, fluffy clouds. Several puzzle pieces are shown floating around the central assembly, in various colors including green, yellow, blue, and purple. The overall composition is centered and balanced, with the hands positioned at the corners of the frame, suggesting a collaborative effort.
