Systematic rape, sexual slavery and slavery-like practices

DRAFT RESOLUTION

Sub-Commission resolution 2000/

The Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights.

Recalling its resolution 1993/24 of 25 August 1993 and its decision 1994/109 of 19 August 1994, establishing the mandate and the framework for the study on systematic rape, sexual slavery and slavery-like practices during armed conflict, including internal armed conflict, as well as Commission on Human Rights decision 1994/103 of 4 March 1994,

Taking note of its decision 1997/114 of 27 August 1998, in which the Sub-Commission entrusted Ms. Gay J. McDougall with the task of completing the study and to submit it at the Sub-Commission's fiftieth session,

Taking note in particular of its decision 1999/16 of 26 August 1999, in which the Sub-Commission requested the Special Rapporteur to submit to the Sub-Commission at its fifty-second session a report containing the updated information presented at its current [1999] session, with a view to wide distribution of the entire study in all the official languages, including to Governments, competent bodies of the United Nations, specialized agencies, regional intergovernmental organizations, the established international tribunals and to the Assembly of States Parties of the International Criminal Court,

Recalling also its resolution 1998/18 of 21 August 1998 on systematic rape, sexual slavery and slavery-like practices during armed conflict, including internal armed conflict,

Recalling in addition the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court, adopted on 17 July 1998 at the United Nations Conference of Plenipotentiaries, which specifically recognizes that sexual violence and sexual slavery committed in the context of either an internal or an international armed conflict may constitute crimes against humanity and war crimes falling within the jurisdiction of the Court,

Encouraged that the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court also devotes useful attention to the protection and rehabilitation of victims of sexual violence, along with significant protections for the collection of evidence and the testimony of witnesses in cases involving gender-related violence and sexual slavery,

Recalling the report of the Special Rapporteur on systematic rape, sexual slavery and slavery-like practices during armed conflict, including internal armed conflict (E/CN.4/Sub.2/1998/13 including appendix),

Reaffirming its resolution 1999/16 of last session addressing systematic rape, sexual slavery and slavery-like practices during armed conflict, including internal armed conflict,
