조직 개편안(한국 제안)

The activities of the Korean Commission for women's tribunal 2000

1) Projects concerning fact-finding

The Korean Council is investigating the size of damage, truth, and personal data of those victims by recording in the testimony from the victims and those who were forcefully drafted and recruited who are scattered throughout Korea and abroad into a book in 1999, especially concentrating on surveying the comfort stations and historical sites in Sakhalin, China, and the South Pacific region. At the present time, the Korean Council has finished surveying the sites in Sakhalin and China, and in 2000, the Council is planning to survey several islands in the South Pacific region including Rabaul(in New Britain island) and Saipan. The project that needs to be concentrated on for the next year is the problem of victims's physical and mental sequela, and the project of research on the aftermath from sociologic and feminist point-of-view.

2) Student Tribunal

With the motto of "Solution of the "Comfort Women" for Japanese soldiers, with the power of young generation", the Student Tribunal centered with college students will be held in April of the next year. The Student Tribunal has the campaign characteristic of students studying together, sharing views, and increasing the awareness for war and women's rights. The Student Tribunal will be held in April in the year of 2000 for 3 days with performances, mock court, and symposiums prepared by students.

3) Korean Symposium

The women's tribunal 2000 will be held in the center of Tokyo in December 2000, and Korea Symposium that will publicly display research data and materials in Seoul in October 2000. The contents of the symposium will mainly focus on the problem of the "Comfort Women" from various angles including the accomplishments and tasks on the solution of the "Comfort Women"-problem for the past 10 years. Also, Korea Symposium will be in summoning format for the women's tribunal 2000.

4) Publication of Korean Research Book

The Korean Council is planning to publish a series of 6 books on the research for the women's tribunal 2000. Currently, the Korean Council is active divided into legal committee, fact-finding committee, planning and public relations committee, and student tribunal committee for the women's tribunal 2000, and the research collected will be published in a series by October 2000. Legal committee is planning to research centering around legal theory and precedents on the problem relating to the "Comfort Women" issue, and fact-finding committee is planning to publish eyewitness book and to research the problem of the "Comfort Women" from various angles.

5) Nation-wide campaign

The most important thing for the successful women's tribunal 2000 is public campaign. It is letting more people know about the purpose and idea of the women's tribunal 2000, and making people participate in the problem of the "Comfort Women". For these purposes, the Korean Council is planning to open cultural performances starting January of the next year, and with 3.1, the Independence Movement Day, and 8.15, the Independence Day, the Korean Council is planning to concentrate on collecting donations and carrying out public campaign in each local region,
