

CONTENTS OF THE STUDY ON WAR-TIME SLAVERY

1) Introduction

2) Issues

Claims from NGOs and governments

Defense by the Japanese Government

4) Facts

Admitted facts

Evidence

5) Law

State responsibility

International law as regards slavery and slave trade

Customary international law

International law as regards slavery-like practices

The Forced Labour Convention

Three conventions prohibiting trafficking in white slaves

War crimes and crimes against humanity

Other international law instruments

The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights

The Convention for Elimination of Discrimination against Women

6) Conclusion and recommendations

Conclusion

Recommendation