

Dear Honorable Judge Gabrielle Kirk MacDonald,

Re: Affidavits, testimonies and exhibited materials

1. Witness Testimonials

The Prosecutors of South Korea would like to submit the following to meet your request for a written translation of the testimonies given by the Korean survivors during the joint Presentation of the North and South Korean Prosecutors. As the Secretary does not allow to use a tape of the testimonies themselves given in person, we could only present the following as material which both covers and further supplements the evidence presented yesterday.

The two witnesses questioned by Kang Chongsuk and Yang Hyonah (of the South Korean prosecution team), were Mun Philki and Ahn Bopsoon respectively. Extensive testimonial given by Mun Philki of her experiences in a Japanese military 'comfort station' located in China can be found in the English language collection of the testimonies of Korean 'comfort women' entitled True Stories of the Korean Comfort Women edited by Keith Howard. A copy of this book has been submitted with the indictment to each of the four Honorable Judges and the Registrar of the Court.

Prosecutor Yang Hyunah has also supplied a summary of the exchange and testimony of survivor Ahn Bopsoon (Attachment I).

Please refer also to Annex 2, Crimes Committed against the Korean ;Military Comfort Women': Survivors Testimonies, of the Joint Indictment of North and South Korea which has extensive translated excerpts from the testimonies of 64 women. Appendix 6-1, Witness Testimonies, also includes the summaries of the stories and testimonies of five women survivors.

2. Submission of Video Materials

The remaining video materials were subtitled and will be copied and submitted as soon as possible together with a more complete list of exhibits.

3. Power Point Presentation Materials

A copy of the power presentation complete with explanatory notes detailing sources has also been submitted with this letter.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you should have any further inquiries regarding these matters.

Yours sincerely,

Sihyun Cho
Prosecutor of North and South Korea
