

Article 6. Women with disabilities

1. States Parties recognize that women and girls with disabilities are subject to multiple discrimination and to this end undertake focused, sex-specific and gender sensitive measures to ensure that women and girls with disabilities enjoy all human rights and fundamental freedoms without discrimination on the basis of sex.

(Facilitator's proposal Art4.)[e bis) To take all necessary including sex-specific and gender sensitive measures to ensure the full and equal enjoyment of all human rights by women with disabilities on an equal basis with others, bearing in mind the general obligations to ensure equality between women and men;]

(Facilitator's proposal Art.6. 1) States Parties recognize that women and girls with disabilities are subject to multiple discrimination and that focused, sex-specific and gender sensitive measures are necessary to ensure the full and equal enjoyment by women and girls with disabilities of all human rights and fundamental freedoms.

2. States Parties shall take measures to ensure the freedom, safety, and autonomy of women and girls with disabilities, based on the recognition of the interactive effects of sex and disability in all social systems.
3. States Parties shall implement all obligations to ensure the equal rights of women and girls with disabilities to the enjoyment of all rights set forth in this Convention with a gender perspective in mind.

(Facilitator's proposal Art.6). State Parties shall take all appropriate measures to ensure the equal right of women with disabilities to the enjoyment of all rights set out in this Convention.
